

Hazel Johnson was born October 20, 1920 to the late John and Susan Johnson in Summerton, the Freetown Section of Clarendon County. Hazel was the third oldest of nine siblings. She left home as a teenager to complete her high school education in the Public School of Washington, DC. After graduation Hazel moved to New York City where she worked for many years as a seamstress until her retirement. “Aunt Easter”, as we so fondly called her helped with her nieces and nephew who came to New York at an early age.

Hazel departed this earthly life, April 28, 2015 at the Jewish Home Life Care Nursing Facility in Manhattan, New York.

She is preceded in death by her youngest son, Thomas Johnson.

Those left to grow from her legacy of love and cherish her memory are: her daughter Yvonne Harris of Bronx, NY: her grandson, Kevin Harris (Christiana) of Durham, NC: her two great-grandchildren, Sarena and Adam Harris of Durham, NC: her sister, Susan Oliver of New York City: her Godchild Jamal Lewis of New York: a loving group of nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
